On Wednesday, 23 August, the Deputy Chief of the Thai Criminal Investigation Division (CID) queried Nguyen Duc Quy on Viet Minh activities and policies of interest to Thailand.* The following are some of the questions and answers:

Q. Are or were adherents of the Viet Minh undergoing military training in Thailand?

A. No. Never

Q. What is the policy of the Viet Minh toward its neighboring states?

A. Our policy has not changed. We seek cordial relations with our neighbors. We have no aggressive designs nor do we incite internal unrest or violence against our neighbors.

Q. The USSR and Communist China have recognized and are supporting the Viet Minh. Do you believe, as a result of this cooperation, Viet Nam will be required to collaborate with these countries in aggressive acts against neighboring states?

A. It is true that both Russia and China are providing us with the greatest moral and material support required to liberate Viet Nam from the French. This does not mean that Russia and China will use Viet Nam as a tool against anyone. We will not incite unrest or participate in local Thai politics.
